

Employability Report 2013-18

Batch of interneers 2013-2014

Induction was done on 4th January 2014, the day of joining the internship. Mr. Prashanth V M gave the induction to interneers who were advised the further scopes in their field, about joining Master Degree programme and continuing education, setting up of clinics, working as clinical therapists in renowned hospitals, becoming teaching assistants and research assistants. Attending workshops and conferences to improvise their knowledge.

Batch of interneers 2014-2015

Induction was done on 17th January 2015, the day of joining the internship. Mr. Prashanth V M gave the induction to interneers who were advised the further scopes in their field, about joining Master Degree programme and continuing education, setting up of clinics, working as clinical therapists in renowned hospitals, becoming teaching assistants and research assistants. Attending workshops and conferences to improvise their knowledge.

Batch of interneers 2015-2016

Induction was done on 4th January 2016, the day of joining the internship. Mr. Nagarjuna S gave the induction to interneers who were advised the further scopes in their field, about joining Master Degree programme and continuing education, setting up of clinics, working as clinical therapists in renowned hospitals, becoming teaching assistants and research assistants. Attending workshops and conferences to improvise their knowledge. Authorities from Wellness One and few other rehabilitation centers had come to the institution for recruitment.

Batch of interneers 2016-2017

Induction was done on 19th December 2016, the day of joining the internship. Mr. Vijay Samuel gave the induction to interneers who were advised the further scopes in their field, about joining Master Degree programme and continuing education, setting up of clinics, working as clinical therapists in renowned hospitals, becoming teaching assistants and research assistants. Attending workshops and conferences to improvise their knowledge.

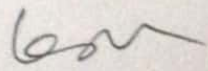

Dr. Kavitha Raja took a class on professionalism, awareness on various means of career advancement and preparation needed for attending an interviews and various nation and international level exams.

Batch of interneers 2017-2018

Induction was done on 5th February 2018, the day of joining the internship. Mr. Vijay Samuel gave the induction to interneers who were advised the further scopes in their field, the interns were made aware of various vacancies and opportunities that came up in and around India through a common WhatsApp group created by the college. At the time of completion of internship, all the students were also made aware of vacancies opened in JSSH, Mysuru for the post of clinical therapist with comparatively good pay from other setups.

College also has subscription for 4 newspapers, 8 magazines which includes (Manorama, Prajavani, Vijayavani, The Hindu) and (Competition Success, Week's Supplementary, Mangala Jobs) all the above newspapers and magazines gives information about competitive exams, various courses and job opportunities all over India, which helps all the students of JSS college of Physiotherapy to get awareness w.r.t. exams, conferences, and workshops etc.

PRINCIPAL
JSS College of Physiotherapy
Ramanuja Road, Mysuru-04