

Mentor report to class coordinators

Year : 2014-15

Name of mentor: Aditi Bhandiwad

Student name	Class	Attendance to mentoring sessions total sessions (no. Attended)	Specific difficulties expressed by student	Mentor's comments if any Akhila	I BPT	11/ 18	Student expressed with difficulty in understanding the class in English, hence has low self confident about medical subjects- anatomy, physiology & biochemistry.	Student was instructed to spend time reading general English books for few days so that she would be able to understand the language. She was advised to read the chapters of all the three subjects and chapter follow it up regularly.
Jeethana	I BPT	1/18	The student discontinued the course within few weeks of joining due to personal reasons	-----
Christon Mathew	I BPT	0/18	The student expressed concerned about the language and the topics were covered to fast and he was finding it difficult to cope up –medical subjects	Student was instructed to spend time reading general English books for few days so that she would be able to understand the language. Assignments and regular read up and writing about each chapter in each subject was given.

Poovaiah	II BPT	12/18	The student enquired about the reference books for exercise & electrotherapy. Had problems during practical demonstrations as he had missed out few classes	Books were identified for the student and was given assignments to cope with the classes and was asked to practice the exercise and electrotherapy sessions with the help of PG assistants designated for practical revision classes
Roshni Devaiah	II BPT	16/18	No doubts, student showed keen interest in the subjects and had cleared the internals with good marks	Was asked to regular read up the chapters in all subjects and to keep updated with regular classes
Ashitha Sunny	I BPT	0/18	Left the course after a week due to personal reasons	-----
Akshitha Jain	II BPT	16/18	Had difficulty in practising MMT and goniometry	Reference books for practical's was identified and advised to follow up with the revision practical classes taken by the PG assistants.
Kavyashree	II BPT	16/18	Had difficulty in practising MMT and goniometry	Reference books for practical's was identified and advised to follow up with the revision practical classes taken by the PG assistants
Gokul Sajeew	II BPT	5/18	The student had problem with attending the college, had no interest	The student was counselled on several occasion other than mentoring hours to attend the

			to come to college as he had back logs of first year subjects. He had shortage of attendance.	classes and to refer books in r library after class hours. Assignments were was given which most of them were not completed. He was counselled by the UG co-ordinator to facilitate him to attend classes.
Melony	III BPT	7/18	The student had difficulty in performing special tests on hip and knee joints and was not sure about the reference books in library	The books were identified in the library and were shown to the student. Magee & Hutchison practical manual was asked to refer.
Joshna	III BPT	5/18	Student was losing interest in cardio-pulmonary subject as she was finding it difficult to understand the subject.	The concerned subject staff was contacted and was informed to take necessary steps to involve the student into practical and subject orientation.
Sneha Mary Jacob	III BPT	16/18	Student was keen on reading other reference books in orthopaedics and cardiopulmonary. She also wanted more practical classes	Reference books in library was identified for both subjects and subject teacher was informed for extra practical classes
Abbey .P.Rajan	IV BPT	4/18	Student had problems with practical demonstrations on wheel chair management	Subject teacher was contacted and extra classes for the students
Ragin Mary Jose	IV BPT	8/18	Student had problems	Subject teacher was contacted

			with practical demonstrations on wheel chair management & PNF	and extra classes for the students
Tilna	IV BPT	0/18	Student had problems with practical demonstrations on wheel chair management & PNF	Subject teacher was contacted and extra classes for the students